

l'Égypte

feuilleton

enseignement

livres

actualité

Patrimoines du globe

- To inform and to promote archaeology around the world in its different cultural forms (paintings, architecture, music, history etc....) through the distribution of various literature and the exchange of information through the association's internet site as well as through events, lecturers etc... in France and abroad.
- To encourage partnerships between companies and scientists, members of the association in order to develop know-how and expertise and to provide any kind of assistance for them (financial, administrative, technical or others).
- To participate by any means of the preservation and protection of archaeological sites opened to tourism.

